12:40 – 1:35 Program: Redefining Remote Databases: Free, Public and Academic Resources

Presented by Amy Spare, Associate Director for Law Library Research & Instructional Services and Lori Corso, Electronic Services Librarian and Legal Research Instructor at Villanova University School of Law. This session will review free sources as well as local public and academic library databases available to attorneys and law librarians, allowing law libraries to expand their collections without having to purchase additional electronic resources. What's available might just surprise you! Participants are also encouraged to share their favorite sites/databases.

1:35 – 1:50 Refreshment break

1:50 - 2:35 Program: Wearing the Project Manager Hat-with Style! Facilitated by Lori Corso

This roundtable discussion will review the basics of project management in the library setting and take a look at projects undertaken by GPLLA members in the last few years. Whether you've been asked to tackle projects that fall within (or lay somewhere far outside) your job description, it never hurts to get advice from others who have been in your shoes. Learn how to get started, stay organized, and keep things on track for completion (not to mention how to publicize your accomplishment!).

2:35 – 2:45 Refreshment Break

2:45 – 3:00 Board Elections and Business

3:00 – 3:45 Program: It's Free: Connecting with Your Clients to Raise Your Library's Profile

Presented by Heidi Heller, Director, Research and Information Services, Schnader Harrison Segal & Lewis LLP. Changes in legal publishing and shifting law firm paradigms push libraries to spend more on new products, even as our budgets are trimmed. Many mid-sized firms are never completely up-to-date. Discover ways you can raise your profile and connect with attorneys by enhancing customer service and legal research training using tools you already have.

4 – 6 PM Reception: Relocate to nearby Gullifty's for food and drinks. Gullifty's Pizza Grille & Bar, 1149 E Lancaster Ave, Bryn Mawr, PA 19010. For those taking the Paoli/Thorndale Regional Rail line to the Institute: transportation to Gullifty's will be provided and Gullifty's is just short walk from the Rosemont train station.
